VACCINATION AND DOG LICENSING:

- It's the Law! New York State requires that dogs be vaccinated against rabies.
- All dogs must be up-to date on all vaccinations and proof is required to register for membership.
- All dogs must have a current dog license issued by the Village of Valley Stream.

DOG PARK BENEFITS:

- Affords open space for dog to be off leash in a safe environment
- Allows dogs to exercise and socialize which helps to eliminate nuisance behaviors of dogs such as barking and destruction of property and having a designated place to go.
- Improves quality of life for Village residents

VISION:

Mayor Fare and the Board of Trustees "Vision" is to expand Recreational Programs and activities in an effort to "Create a Positive Quality of Life in the Community" for its citizens.

In pursuit of this "Vision" the Village in partnership with the "Friends of Valley Stream Dog Park", Mayor Fare and the Board of Trustees announce the creation of an "Off The Leash" Community Dog Park.

The Dog Park is located adjacent to the Village Hall. It features a small dog park, a large dog park, shade structures, benches, dog water fountains, and "dogipot" waste disposal receptacles. Each dog park will have six foot high fencing. The small dog park will encompass about 3,000 square feet and the large dog park will encompass about 8,500 square feet.

DOG PARK MEMBERSHIP:

The Village of Valley Stream Community Dog Park will be open to:

- Incorporated Village of Valley Stream residents and Central High School District #1
- Member can bring guest(s)
- Annual Membership fees are: Resident $18.00, CHSD $55.00
- Dog Owners must register with the Village of Valley Stream's Clerks Department at the Village Hall and show proof of residency and current dog license and current vaccinations. Dog owners will receive a pet owner identification card for access to the park.
