

C-HIST
BOT

Botwinik, Samuel, 1913-
Interview with Samuel Botwinik / interviewed by Helen Dowdeswell. - Valley Stream Historical Society,
February 1, 1989.

1 cassette.

NOTE: Mr. Botwinik talks about life in early Valley
Stream, including his family's move to Valley Stream, dairy farms, his neighbors (Reisert, Pflug, Adler, Schneider), schools, Gouz Farms, businesses on Dutch
Broadway, etc.

1. Botwinik, Samuel, 1913- . 2. Valley Stream
(N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream Historical Society.
II. Dowdeswell, Helen.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

1. Outline of interview - Prepared by Helen Dowdeswell.
2. Photograph of Samuel Botwinik, taken February 1, 1989. *

*Original photograph is filed in the Valley Stream Historical Photograph Collection.

SAMUEL BOTWINIK

Tape Side #1

- 1 Blank
- 5 Introduction
- 15 Family from Russia to Salem, Conn. farm
- 40 1922 to V.S.
- 55 Dairy farmers
- 65 FKK meetings place
- 72 Farmhouse
- 80 Relatives - Gouz family
- 90 Neighbors - Reisert, Pflug, Adler, Schneider
- 108 Relatives
- 116 Childhood - Schools #13, #30
- 130 Gouz move to Dutch Broadway
- 115 Family move to Springfield Gardens
- 150 Childhood friends - Arthur Harvey, Al Baumann, Artie Fare, Johnry
Flowers, Blanche Matthews
- 165 Religious life - Orthodox Jews - no synagogue in V.S.
- 190 Milk delivery
- 210 Shopping in city
- 235 School days
- 275 Living away from V.S.
- 285 Kraft Foods salesman and manager
- 295 Manager at Gouz
- 305 Past 25 years in V.S.
- 314 Hoffman's and Pavillon Royal
- 325 Daughters
- 335 Walking to School # 13
- 395 Dutch Broadway - Orso Farm, Italian Independence Park

Side #2

- 1 Blank
- 15 Family coming to America aided by Baron de Hirsch
Farm life in Connecticut
- 148 End

SAMUEL BOTWINIK, FEBRUARY 1, 1989.