

C-HIST
DIB

Dibble, Evelyn Hallock, 1901-
Interview with Evelyn Hallock Dibble / interviewed by Helen Dowdeswell. - Valley Stream Historical Society, October 22, 1991.

1 cassette.

NOTE: Evelyn Hallock Dibble, a member of an old East End Long Island family, married Jasper Dibble, a member of an old Valley Stream family.
Evelyn tells of teaching in Central, Memorial and South High Schools and of an African safari that she went on with her husband.

1. Dibble, Evelyn Hallock, 1901- . 2. Valley Stream (N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream Historical Society. II. Dowdeswell, Helen.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

1. Outline of interview - Prepared by Helen Dowdeswell.

VALLEY STREAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY CRAI HISTORY INTERVIEW

EVELYN HALLOCK DIBBLE
(Mrs. Jasper Dibble)

Oct. 22, 1991

- 1 Blank
- 5 Introduction
- 15 Born 1901, Greenport, L.I. - Old time family
- 120 Came to V.S. 1935- teacher at Central H.S.
- 153 Home on Fletcher Ave.
- 180 Teaching - introducing Reading as a subject
- 234 Changes in the schools
- 256 Moves to Memorial and South H.S. - Scheduling of lunch periods;
Introduction of food service in schools
- 280 Language Arts curriculum
- 295 Dr. Stuart
- 310 Retired 1961 - Summer studies over the years
- 337 Married "Jap" Dibble , now buried in Greebport. Friction with sister Mable Dibble Ackerly
- 380 Real estate business
- 375 Explorers' Club - Safari in Africa
- 450 Jap consultant on Village Board
- 465 Mayor Waldinger
- 480 Happy marriage
- 495 V.S. a fine place to live
- 500 End

DIBBLE, EVFLYN HALLOCK, 1901-
Member of an old east end Long Island family and married to a member of an old Valley Stream family, Evelyn tells of teaching in Central, Memorial and South High Schools and of an African safari with her husband, Jasper.