

C-HIST
HOU

Houlihan, Daniel, 1923-

Interview with Daniel Houlihan. - Valley Stream
Historical Society, November 22, 2001.

1 audiocassette.

NOTE: Daniel Houlihan, a former Valley Stream resident, tells of life as a child and teenager in Valley Stream, his WWII war service, and his adult life in Valley Stream in Wisconsin. His book about his married life is at the Pagan-Fletcher Restoration.
(Interview questions were read by his wife.)

1. Houlihan, Daniel, 1923- . 2. Valley Stream
(N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream Historical Society.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

- 1) Outline of Interview - Prepared by Helen Dowdeswell.
- 2) Photograph of Daniel Houlihan, November 22, 2001. *

* Original Photograph is filed in the Valley Stream Historical Photograph Collection.

VALLEY STREAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW

DANIEL HOULIHAN

Born New York City - 1923

Parents: Eddie Strauss and Hannah

Two sisters and one brother

Father- bookie, Mother - doctor

1926 move to Valley Stream at 42 Montague St.

Active in school sports

Much time reading

Vacation in North Dakota

Active at Holy Name of Mary

Teachers at School # 30 and favorite teachers at Central H.S.

Activities at Central

1943- Military service until 1946

Married and first child born during service

R_lationship with balck men and with German prisoners of war

1946-1956 back in Valley Stream on Montague St.

Owner of Valley Stream Nursing Home on Merrick Rd at Montgomery St.

Teacher at Wheeler Ave, , then Howell Rd. Schools

Father of nine children

Bought 56 acre farm in Wisconsin for $8900

Teaching First Grade at $4700

Century Insurance- publications department

Assistant to President of U. of Wisc. , Steven's Point

Taught Public Relations and Journalism- 23 years

Retired

HOULIHAN, DANIEL 1923---

Former V.S. resident tells of life as child and teenager, his war years
in WWII his adult life in V.S. and Wisconsin. His book about his married life is at the Pagan-
Fletcher Restoration
(Interview- 11/22/01)

DANIEL HOULIHAN