

WHN TRIBUTE TO LONNY STARR
Original Air Date – November 13, 1972

Commercial – Delta Air Lines

Intro – Jack Spector

John Van Buren Sullivan (VP/General Manager WHN) remembrances

Jack Spector recollection

Frank Sinatra song – “Ring-A-Ding-Ding”

Jack Spector

Lonny Starr on Frank Sinatra

Frank Sinatra song – “I’m A Fool to Want You”

Lonny Starr on “I’m A Fool to Want You”

Jack Spector on Lonny Starr

Errol Garner (musician) recollection

Jack Spector

Gene Klaven (WNEW radio personality) recollection

Frank Sinatra song – “I’ve Got You Under My Skin”

Jack Spector

Lonny Starr intro of Count Basie at Roseland Ballroom, NYC

Jack Spector

Lonny Starr and Woody Herman (musician) conversation

Jack Spector

Lonny Starr and Count Basie (band leader) conversation

Jack Spector

Bruce Bradley (radio personality) recollection

Jack Spector

---News/Sports/Commercial---

Jack Spector

Statement from John V. Lindsay (Mayor of New York)

Jack Spector

Ted Brown (radio personality) recollection

Jack Spector

Tony Bennett (singer) recollection

Frank Sinatra song – “The Very Thought of You”

Jack Spector

Ralph Caso (Nassau County Executive) recollection

Jack Spector

Connie Francis (singer) recollection

Jack Spector

William B. Williams (radio personality) recollection

Jack Spector

Frank Sinatra song – “This Nearly Was Mine”

Jack Spector

Lonny Starr on Frank Sinatra’s Retirement

Jack Spector

Al Hibbler (vocalist with Duke Ellington) recollection

Jack Spector

Dick Shepherd (radio personality) recollection

Jack Spector

Mike Prelee (radio personality) recollection

Jack Spector Sign-off

