PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to you for electing me to the highly honored position of President for the year 1960-61.

I will endeavor to fulfill the obligation which I have undertaken to the best of my ability.

One of the first accomplishments under way was the setting up of the various committees, which has been completed to my satisfaction and, I am sure, for the good of the chapter. A page listing all the committees will be found in a future bulletin.

The committees have been meeting and planning during the summer months, to formulate a most interesting and enjoyable schedule throughout the coming year.

The Membership Committee will be ready, willing, and able to accept any applications that may be forthcoming.

In conclusion, I would like to wish the members, their families and loved ones all a Happy, Healthy, and enjoyable New Year.

MOLLIE RUBENSTEIN

SUMMER LUNCHEON AND CARD PARTY

“Join us and bring your friends” — that was our wish for our August 17th Luncheon and Card Party — and you girls certainly did your best to fulfill it.

The affair was a tremendous success, with good food served at Marcia Ziegler’s Home and Country Gardens. Thanks to all the girls who helped, and also to those girls whose husbands contributed the fabulous prizes.

HELEN OKIN

SEEING IS BELIEVING

There is no country in the world so rich in contrast, so varied in appearance as the Land of Israel. You may see a Bedouin camp with their black tents and camels . . . along the highways speed the latest model automobiles and trucks; a train rushes by and at the same time a caravan of camels plod leisurely along.

In Israel you behold a nation of remnants gathered from all parts of the world restored to a new life. Israel is truly accomplishing miracles each day and her greatest commodity is her "young people" who are the future citizens and leaders of this marvelous, independent country. Hence — education plays one of the most important roles. The ORT program is one of the outstanding projects in reaching this goal.

I had the pleasure of visiting the newest ORT school in Ramat Gan during my recent trip this summer. Mr. Rivlin, the school's principal was extremely cooperative and proud to show me around. This is a beautiful, modern, spacious secondary school where thousands of Israeli boys study each year. At this particular ORT school courses in radio and electrical mechanics, tool and dye making, etc., are given. Did you know that the students at this school; whether they be "sabres" or immigrants, have to learn besides Hebrew, of course; English fluently as so many of the technical books are printed in English only!

We of the Valley Stream Chapter should be very proud to be a part of the fruitful work that ORT is doing each day in helping to restore a land . . . a people . . . a culture and in making a dream of many generations become a living reality.

THE BREITER SIDE

As the sun and the summer sink slowly over the horizon, we bid Aloha to the natives standing on the shore, and set sail for our own little island . . . Happydale. Some of the natives around here have been pretty restless, traveling to and fro, hither and yon. More yon than hither were Rhoda and Ed Wiener, who spent three weeks in Israel . . . once they got away. After a beautiful farewell party at the Goldman's, the guests escorted the Wieners to Idlewild, and right back to Green Acres. Bumped, you know. They left quietly the next evening. Carolyn and Arnie Kaplan were in California for a fortnight (Hoo Ha), and the Katzes—Marcelle, Dave, and Liz saw America first . . . at least the East Coast. Too numerous to name are the parents who did the camp circuit . . . and the roving canasta players who were everywhere.

We have a bouquet lying around here somewhere for Al Fagin, who donated all the fruit for the card party at Marcia Ziegler's Rolling Acres Farms. We promised Al some ad space on the cuff, but he's set his heart on an honorary membership. And about that card party . . . lots of love to Helen Okin and Mom for their untiring devotion to duty . . . An almost new face in the crowd is Sally Rosenblum, who's done away with eighteen inches of those tresses . . . Keep your eyes on the South Shore Record, currently running an article on Arnold Abramson . . . Sheila Rubenstein has set The Date, December 3, Mollie isn't losing a daughter. ORT is gaining a son. And best wishes to the Gleichers, who also gained a son, Robert Charles Gleicher, The First. Speaking of sons, Paul Breiter made All Around Camper. So who's bragging?

On the sick list . . . Bea Bucheim, Florence Zukerman and Irene Haupt.

SUNSHINE

BELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO:

Hilly Wiener on his 11th from Mommy, Daddy, Ira and Jody:

Ellen Joyce Flanzig on her 9th from Mommy, Daddy and Jane.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO:

Janice M. Feldman on her 12th, from Mother, Dad and Wendy.

Rise Abramson on her 8th from Mommy, Daddy and Loren.

Louise, Jimmy and Larry Barruch, from Mommy and Daddy.

Nathan Mandel on his 11th from Mommy, Daddy and Edith.

A speedy recovery from us to you. And Martha . . . stop this foolishness and get yourself better. Among the out-patients . . . Sylvia Ross and Sis Flanzig. To anyone we missed . . . Lots of luck.

By the way, at that card party at Windsor Castle, there were several nosy parkers who left to poke around Bobby Rubin's place, and were found gasping at the magnificence therein. Sis Flanzig and Selma Kassak, proud owner of Champion Kuddles Kassak, were two of the gaspers. On the subject of magnificence, the Ultimate is Pat and Eve Cohen's new shop. A gasser, or as the kids say these days, a blast.

Memo to the newspaper staff: The next meeting will be held in Bernice Stein's air-conditioned Buick. File that.
