

C-HIST
DOR

Doria, Vincent.

Interview with Vincent and Carmela Doria / interviewed by Adele Hagmann. - Valley Stream
Historical Society, August 3, 2000.

1 audiocassette.

NOTE: Vincent and Carmela Doria tell about moving to Valley Stream in 1945, local organizations, stores on Rockaway Avenue, and advantages of living in Valley Stream.

1. Doria, Vincent. 2. Doria, Carmela. 3.
Valley Stream (N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream
Historical Society. II. Hagmann, Adele. III. Doria, Carmela.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

1. Outline of Interview - Prepared by Adele Hagmann.

- 1- Identification - place of birth in Italy. former home - move to Valley Stream in 1945 because of its good schools, excellent transportation to New York City, and location near church and shopping.
- 24- Long Island Railroad transportation. Early changes in area.
- 33- Acquisition of land by Grace Methodist Church for building of new sanctuary and education building.
- 50- Occupations: garment industry. severe snow storm.
- 65 When one son attended Franklin Avenue School Carmela became cook there for three years. She then was hired as clerk at South High School in 1957, transferred to Central High School as secretary to Dr. Smith, Director of Music.
- 112- Sons' schools and occupations. Schoolmates.
- 132- Organizations Rosary Society at Holy Name of Mary, PTAs, Secretary AARP.
- 169- Children in school and their friends.
- 183- Volunteer at Grace Methodist Church Thrift Shop.
- 197- Future plans.
- 213- Looking back at Rockaway Avenue: Bohack's, A&P,, Safeway, Marjorie Shop for women, Regent Shop for men, Suprina's well-known sport store jewelry store, Post Office on Jamaica Ave. and also the Police Department.
- 255- Franklin Avenue School, surrounded by trees planted in memory of veterans
- 306- Other stores in Valley Stream, doctors and health organizations.
- 444- Advantages of living in Valley Stream
- 465 End.