

C-HIST
DUR

Duryea, Clinton A., 1924-

Interview with Clinton A. Duryea / interviewed by Grace Agnes Libath. - Valley Stream Historical Society, May 20, 1998.

1 audiocassette.

NOTE: Clinton A. Duryea, a native Valley
Streamer, tells of lifetime in Valley Stream, including going to various schools and volunteering at the hospital.

1. Duryea, Clinton A., 1924- . 2. Valley Stream
(N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream Historical Society. II. Libath, Grace Agnes.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

1. Outline of Interview - Prepared by Helen Dowdeswell.
2. Photograph of Clinton A. Duryea, May 20, 1998.

* Original Photograph is filed in the Valley Stream Historical Photograph Collection.

VALLEY STREAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW

CLINTON. A. DURYEA

5/20/98

1. Introduction

15. Born Valley Stream - 1924

Family, house and property

80. Neighbors

100. Location of house on Fairfield St.

160. Shopping at King Kullen in Laurelton

180. Clothing at Suprin's on Rockaway Ave.

200. Seasonal activities

230. Vacation travel and camping- some anecdotes

280. Childhood friends and activities

320. Attending Methodist Sunday School and church

360. Skating at rink in Elmont

370. Respect for one's elders

Bowling above Drug Store

400. Schools: Franklin Ave., Brooklyn Ave., Central Junior and Senior Schools

Incident in Gym. Leaving school to join Navy

465. Medical discharge - Employment by A.T. & T

A.T.&T involvement in war effort

550. Stores on Rockaway Ave.

580. Marriage and family

601. Volunteer at hospital - 9700 hours

623. President of Pioneers

SIDE2

1. Valley Stream since WW II

DURYEA, CLINTON A., 1924-

A native Valley Streamer tells of lifetime in the village.

(Interview- May 20, 1998)

CLINTON A. DURYEA