

C-HIST
HYM

Hyman, Victor, 1917-

Interview with Victor Hyman / interviewed by Helen Dowdeswell. - Valley Stream Historical Society,
August 21, 1990.

1 cassette.

NOTE: Victor Hyman, a lawyer, talks about growing up on Roosevelt Avenue and how the neighborhood coped with the Depression and tells some anecdotes of Valley Stream during World War II.

1. Hyman, Victor, 1917- . 2. Valley Stream
(N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream Historical Society.
II. Dowdeswell, Helen.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

1. Outline of interview - Prepared by Helen Dowdeswell.

VALLEY STREAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY OPAL HISTORY RECORDING

VICTOR HYMAN 1917-
Aug. 21, 1990

1. Blank
- 5 Introduction
- 10 Family
- 18 Coming to V.S. 1928 - 97 Roosevelt Ave. corner of Berkeley
- 30 Shopping along Roosevelt Ave.
- 43 Childhood activities - newsboy
- 59 Father's activities - jeweler- commuter
- 65 Sundays
- 73 Depression time
- 78 Friends in neighborhood
- Soccer teams named for political parties
- 110 Father in Square Club
- 115 To N.Y.C. for amateur radio hobby
- 127 Five years in Central H.S. - 1936
- 140 World War II - Drafted in 1941 - Signal Corps in Bora Bora - heavy sweater donation
Goodwill packages from mess sergeant to Valley Streamer on relief
- 185 Fish story in Depression times
- 208 After war changes in V.S.
- 258 LIRR steam trains
- 295 World's Fair of 1939
- 305 Jacob Ruehl the barber
- 325 Dick Howe and the V.S. Mail
- 340 Bartel's Bakery
- 365 Double feature etc,
- 375 Communist and Socialist parties
- 385 End

Summary:

Hyman, Victor, 1917 -

Lawyer raised in Valley Stream

Mr. Hyman tells of growing up on

Roosevelt Ave., how the neighborhood coped with the Depression and some anecdotes of V.S.

in WWII.

Recorded - August 21, 1990