

C-HIST
KRU

Kruger, Marion Dibble, 1916-
Interview with Marion Dibble Kruger / interviewed
by Adele Hagmann. - Valley Stream Historical Society,
June 15, 1993.

1 cassette.

NOTE: Marion Dibble Kruger speaks of her family and their moves to various homes in Valley Stream, local activities and events in which she participated, and history of her present home.

1. Kruger, Marion Dibble, 1916- . 2. Valley
Stream (N.Y.) - History. I. Valley Stream Historical Society. II. Hagmann, Adele.

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

1. Outline of interview - Prepared by Adele Hagmann.

MARION DIBBLE KRUGER - ORAL HISTORY COMMITTEE

- 1 - 3 Introduction
4 - 7 Family members
15 Dibble ancestors
26 Congdon relatives (Mother's family)
31 Move to Lynbrook
40 Neighbors on Woodlawn St.
47 Neighbors at Corona Av. house
53 Flood - circa 1919
55 Move to West Oxford St.
Neighbors there
65 Move to East Carpenter St. 1921
Neighbors there
82 Trolley rides and rides to Long Beach
89 Arrow head discovery
94 Home delivery of foodstuffs
99 Sunday School at Grace Methodist Church
109 School at old Wheeler Ave.
Dedication of new building 1925
Classmates at new school
130 Annual bus trip by Sunday School
Anniversary Day parade
143 Teaching Sunday School
161 Uncle Congdon's property on Central Av.e
211 Night parades and Memorial Day parades
220 KKK activities
231 School days - Ira Mummert principal
Field Days
242 Vacations and holidays
Carnivals
253 Old Lantern shops
267 1929 - Central High at 8th grade
Teachers and Harry Gross- principal
Graduation
299 Depression Days
Bank holiday and scarcity of jobs
301 1940 - Marriage and family
305 Husband in Air Force - blackouts

Marion Dibble Kruger

page 2

	Lullaby Club
	Home Bureau
330	Brownies & Girl Scouts
	Air trip over Long Island
349	Daily schedule of school days
355	Movies
367	Activities for young adults
375	Move to present home
380	Rev. Sartorio 1955
395	Telephones in 1921
400	Old neighborhood
436	Ancestors on Long Island
449	Connection with Mabel Dibble
480	Antiques in present home
510	History of residence and land surrounding present home
530	The End